UNFINISHED BUSINESS .- On motion of Ald. Jones, Document No. 31, an Ordinance in relation to the Market Laws, was brought up. This document proposes empowering the Mayor to issue Licenses to such persons as shall be recommended by the Market Committee to sell fresh meats in other places than the Public Markets, which shall be designated in such recommendation, &c. &c.

Avenue from Thirtysiath to Fortysecond streets-Concur

In the course of the discussion on this document the petitions of sundry butchers, complaining of the present mopopoly of sundry persons, to repeal the law prohibiting the sale of fresh meats elsewhere than in Markets, and of E. Lord and others, for the repeal of a part of the Market Laws, were read-all of which had been temporarily laid on the table in an early part of the meeting of the Board this evening.

Ald. Leonard moved to lay the document on the table for the purpose of offering a preamble and resolutions relative to the Market Laws, which was, after dobate, lost by the vote of 4 in the affirmative to 11 in the negative.

After a long debate several amendments were propose in the various sections and passed, some of them altering materially the tenor of the original document.

The Ordinance, as amended, passed. Adjourned till Wednesday afternoon next.

SATURDAY, December 10.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge Thomp-

George Pearce vs. Grinnell, Minturn & Co .- The plain tiff (a dry-goods merchant in William-street) imported, in the ship Patrick Henry, from Liverpool, in February tast 15 packages merchandise, among them a box of superior aces. The latter never came to hand, and the present action is against the defendants, as owners of the ship, to recover the value. The mate of the vessel that supe intended the cargo is away, but a carman testified that he had every reason to believe he delivered the whole of the goods to plaintiff, and one of the receipts signed by plaintiff's clerk had the words " four cases" marked on itthis appeared, however, to have been written by the mate while the same receipt had only the marks of three packages. The Custom-House officer testified to the package alluded to never having been landed from the ship. The Jury gave a verdict for plaintiff of $782 10, being the value

U. S. District Court .- In Bankruptcy .- Be fore Judge Betts.

Amory & Leeds .- After the parties had petitioned, and exhibited their assets, they assigned to Mr. Waddell, in his private capacity, all their property in trust for their creditors. Mr. W. now declines making a report, on the ground that the assets have never been made over to him as general assigner, and that he cannot proceed against himself. The Court overraied the techical point. Ordered, that when the bankrupts place in the hands of the General Assignce all their property, he may report the facts, and that will be a sufficient compliance with Rule 61.

William H. Weed .- The individual creditor, in this case to be paid pro rata. Andrew Nixon .- Decree of bankruptcy allowed. The objecting parties are at liberty to use testimony should they see fit to oppose a discharge. John W. Latson.-The opposing creditor should have tendered the taxed cost, which rule must be observed the same as in the Courts. If not tendered by Monday, privilege granted to creditor will be revoked. POLICE OFFICE .- SHOPLIFTING .- A man named Samuel Young was arrested on Friday night, by private watchman Cole, as he came out of the store of Messrs. Freeman & Co. No. 113 Pearl-street. He was committed. CORONER'S OFFICE. - ACCIDENTALLY DROWNED. -The Coroner held an inquest to-day, at No 273 South-st. on the body of Andrew Jackson Hasbronck, aged 24, a na. tive of this State. The deceased was a fireman on board the steamboat Crotos, lying at Catharine slip, and about 4 o'clock on Thursday morning, after having fired up, went on shore, took some coffee and soon after started to go on board, but fell into the water. A splash was heard and a rope was thrown over to him, but it being dark he sunk and was drowned. His body was found between 10 and 11 this

Verdict, accidentally drowned. SUNDAY, December 11. POLICE OFFICE.—CHARGED WITH BURGLARY. -In the month of August last the store of Sidney P. Ingraham, auctioneer. No. 123 Fulton-street, was broken open and robbed. A man, Thomas Thompson, a colored porter, was subsequently desired to sleep in the store, and soon af-ter discovered a solered man named John Henry Fullman. attempting to break in by one of the rear windows. He ef-fected his escape, but was yesterday arrested and fully com-mitted on the charge.

A NEST OF GAMBLERS ROUTED .- Last evening a colored man named Oscar Snowden, withsome 8 or 19 other darkies, were arrested for being engaged in gambling in a cellar No 46 Centre-street. Snowden, the keeper of the premi-ses, was held to bail to answer, and the others discharged mise of good behavior.

ARREST OF A BURGLAR. - Officers Stephens, Lowe and J. L. Smith, last night arrested Atlas Frazee, a young man who stands charged with committing a burglary in Fair field county. Conn., on the 5th inst., in company with his brother Lewis, who is now in jail there for the crime. It is somewhat singular that since the arrest of this young man, it has been clearly ascertained that the brothers were engaged in firing a number of our Public Schools in 1239, at which time a reward of $1,000 was affered for the arrest of the offenders. Atlas Frazee will be sent on to Connecticut to be tried for the burgiary. CORONER'S OFFICE .- DEATH FROM SUEFOCA-TION .- The Coroner lately held an inquest, at No. 212 Twenty-first street, in the rear, on the body of a male infant about 4 months old, which was suffocated in bed with its parents last night, being at the time, as was supposed from previous symptoms, convulsed. Verdict, "death by acci-dental suffocation." The child's name was Charles Draddy and his parents respectable.

Monday, December 12. COMMON PLEAS .- Wm. B. Jacobs vs. Bartholomew Blanco.-The plaintiff, on passing the defendant's house in Dover-street, on a dark raisy evening some months since, accompanied by his wife in a wagon, was thrown out, in consequence of the borse stumbling over a quantity of old brick and rubbish which had been left in the street, and was consequently bruised and injured. He now bring action to recover damages. [His wife was also thrown out and obtained a verdict for a small amount, in an action a few weeks since.] The case is still on.

COURT OF SESSIONS .- Before the Recorder and Judge Lynch.

DEFAULTING JURORS.-Five Petit Jurors were fined $5 each for default in attendance to serve. NOLLE PROSEQUI .- In the case of William Barrand Michael Redmond, a nolle prosequi was entered and the case lischarged.

TRIAL FOR PERJURY .- William Stewart was put upon hitrial for perjury, charged to have sworn falsely to the valuof his property in offering himself for bail for William E. Ross in August last. The Jury found a verdict of guilty and he was remanded for sentence. FORFEITED RECOGNIZANCE.—Aifred Wattle, indicted for obtaining $1,043 worth of goods of Messrs McDougal, Simonson & Knapp by false pretence, failing to appear his recognizance was forfeited.

TRIAL FOR GRAND LARCENY .- William Morrow was put upon his trial for grand larceny, in stealing a leather trunk containing coats, vests, pantaloons, shirts, &c., worth $60, from Mathias O. Halstead, of No. 31 Nassau-street, on the 24th May. The Jury brought in the prisoner guilty, and the Court sentenced him to the State Prison tor 4 years and 10 months. He was confined in the Penitentiary when arrested.

Discharge.-Alexander Danforth, a most accomplishe young thief, who was indicted for grand larceny in stealing $76 from Caleb C. Baldwin, at the Commercial Hotel, was discharged by proclamation.

INSURING LOTTERY NUMBERS.-Latayette Green wa tried for a misdemeanor in insuring numbers in the Prov idence and Alexandria Lotteries, on the 8th October last for John Brinbrough, celored man. He gave 20 cents to the insurance to be drawn in one lottery of $20 and of $5 in the other. The witness" made a hit," and defendant re fused to pay him. Mr. Phillips, of coursel for accused, contended that the case was not made out as the indictmen charged the lotteries to be the Providence and Delaware whereas they were the Providence and Alexandria. The District Attorney said if the indictment set forth one of the letteries correctly it was sufficient. The Jury found him guilty. This abominable truffic must be broken up .-Why do n't our officers take up more of these rascals and have them indicted? TRIAL FOR BURGLARY .- Thomas Stephens, impleaded with Thomas Thomas, Francis Thomas and George Morton, in breaking into the store of Messrs. Mops & Spies, in Pearl-street. The evidence being insufficient the Jury found bim not guilty.

TRIAL FOR ASSAULT-AND BATTERY .- William Evans was then tried for an assault and battery on Henry Williams

to call the attention of those who are suffering frem coughts, colds, kc. to a preparation for the relief of difficulties of this kind by C. F. Colton of this city.

I have made frequent use of Colton's Medicated Cough Candy, and in all cases to my entire satisfaction. Also, I have been personally acquainted in cases of others who have used it with like results. It is evidently an agreeable and efficacious medicine, and may be taken freely without prejudicial effects upon the sys-tem. In this last respect particularly it is decidedly superior to the generality of articles of the kind now offered in the market as safe and harmless medicine, and is thereby n connection with its medicinal merits, justly entitled to the irst and highest confidence of those who may wish the re-
